

with the Commission and is open to public inspection.

Transwestern states that the proposed facilities, as amended, will provide incremental capacity of 200,000 dth per day on its existing San Juan Lateral from Ignacio to Blanco and 130,000 dth per day from Blanco to Thoreau.

Transwestern estimates the cost for the proposed facilities to be approximately $20,749,854 which will be financed with internally generated funds.

Transwestern requests certificate authorization by November 15, 1997 in order to place the facilities into service by April 1, 1998.

Any person desiring to be heard or to make any protest with reference to said amendment should on or before September 16, 1997, file with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Washington, D.C. 20426, a motion to intervene or a protest in accordance with the requirements of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure (18 CFR 385.214 or 385.211) and the Regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR 157.10). All protests filed with the Commission will be considered by it in determining the appropriate action to be taken but will not serve to make the protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party to a proceeding or to participate as a party in any hearing therein must file a motion to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this amendment if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that approval for the proposed amendment is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Transwestern to appear or be represented at the hearing. Anyone who has already filed a motion to intervene in Docket No. CP97-516-000 need not file a motion to intervene again with the Commission.
